

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The summer session of the Vermont State Checker association will be held at Randolph Center beginning Aug. 14. It will continue till every player has played two games with every other player. Wins will count two points and draws one point.

"Tax" Furman, one of the best pitchers that they ever had at the University of Vermont, has signed a contract for the season with the Cleveland Americans. His contract covers the present season and he will go south with the team next March.

John Williams, a colored resident of Shelburne, when sentenced to not less than 10 months and not more than 18 months in the state prison at Windsor by Judge Ladd in Burlington Monday repudiated with a slight bow of acknowledgment, "Thank you, Judge."

J. E. Tracy of Burlington, who is located at Brest, France, met his son, Lee Tracy, there the other day when the young man's division came in to prepare for embarkation. He also ran across two other Burlington people, Dr. Twitchell and Miss Parker of Williston.

A Hamilton gold, nineteen jeweled watch, valued at $80 was stolen from Ernest R. Jewell, who is employed at Wells and Richardson's in Burlington. The prompt work of the young man who had lost the watch and of the police department, soon had the timepiece in the owner's hands. Jewell heard that a young man named Archie Caswell had been seen near the place where his coat was hanging when the watch was stolen. He reported this to the police and they hunted up the fellow and soon had his confession and the watch. He said that because he could not make enough to support his wife and daughter, he stole the watch.

Lieut. Col. Joseph Fairbanks of St. Johnsbury has been promoted to the rank of colonel. This is the fourth promotion that has been awarded to Col. Fairbanks since he entered the army in 1917. He was first commissioned as second lieutenant in the quartermasters' corps at Camp Dix. In October he was assigned to the judge advocate corps as a major and transferred to Washington. While still in Washington he was promoted to lieutenant colonel. Since January of this year he has twice asked for his discharge, but his requests have been set aside as he was doing such valuable work as a legal advisor in many lines of work in Washington. His promotion is in recognition of his able work in organization and administration.

The Great Business Need

is to have capitalized and insured the brains and earning capacity of business men who die in the prime of life or earlier. There is no sentiment in the plan, simply a coverage of perishable value, straight business sense. National Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual). S. S. Ballard, general agent, Rialto block, Montpelier, Vt.

ESTATE OF MICHAEL D. PLUMPIEDS

State of Vermont, District of Washington, ss. The honorable probate court for the district aforesaid, to all persons interested in the estate of Michael D. Plumpieds, late of the city of Barre, in said district, deceased, GREETING: WHEREAS, said court has assigned the 27th day of August next for examining and allowing the account of the administrator of the estate of said deceased, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the city of Barre, in said district.

Everybody Likes Soda Water

No matter who calls or when, a glass of Bottled Soda is always welcome. It's a fine thing for the afternoon callers, for the evening guests, for the card party, for any of those pleasant, informal little neighborly events that do so much to make life worth living. Nothing is better for young or old after outdoor athletic sport, as it cools without danger of ill effects. Always have a few bottles on ice.
